Utility of the Goat.

The Editor of the Truckee Republican hangs a sand bag from the ceiling and attaches a rod to it to communicate to his power press. He then brings in a billy goat to butt the sand bag and this runs off the edition. Every paper should have one.

ALL SORTS.

—Bill Gibson is stopping a few days in Carson.

—Mr. W. M. Stewart has returned from San Francisco.

—Two more vags were found guilty in the Justice Court yesterday.

—The Dayton people continue to be satisfied with the excellent work turned out by the Carson Steam Laundry.

—The Index nominates Rev. G. R. Davis to the position of Bishop of Nevada. Mr. Davis is not a candidate for the position.

—John T. Collins, an employee of the Domestic sewing machine company, in San Francisco, was killed on the 25th, inst. by Patrick Mullin.

—There is a white woman now stopping temporarily at Dr. Herrick's house who would like employment as a white cook. She is well recommended.

—A special meeting of the Ladies' Relief Corps is called for this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Masonic hall.

E. S. LEONARD, Pres.

—Yesterday a fine flow of artesian water was struck by McLaughlin & Hawkins at the residence of Mr. Cagwin in this city. The flow is 10,800 gallons per day.

—A lady writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for many years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the pains consequent upon female weaknesses and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

—A few months ago there was scarcely a day that some Chinaman did not leave Carson City. They have stopped going now. Why? Because those who used to be instrumental in getting them out are now letting the Chinese alone and trying to hustle white men out.

—Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary, they prove of special service to those who have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicines, and feel their injurious effects. In such cases Ayer's Pills are invaluable.

Will Elect a Senator.

It is asserted by many of the most prominent members of the California Legislature that the extra session will not adjourn without electing a United States Senator to succeed Senator Hearst. It is claimed that the State Constitution and the revised Statutes of the United States compel the election of a Senator, and that the Governor having called the Legislature together has now no power to prevent it.

The Way to Silence Them.

When a man in Ormsby county incidentally remarks that he proposes to vote the Republican ticket straight this Fall, as he has always done, some one squeals out:

"Then you favor Mongolian slave labor in this county instead of white labor."

In order to silence such a man just ask him how much white labor he employs, and he generally walks away without any reply.

To The Afflicted.

Dr Freeman the expert specialist from San Francisco, is now at the Arlington Hotel, where he is fully prepared to treat paralysis, club or reel feet, crooked or curved spine, hip, and diseases of the knees, also all chronic diseases such as troubles of the eye, ear deafness and discharge of the ear, catarrh, throat and lung troubles. No charge for consultation.

One More Free Lecture

Prof. McDonald has concluded to give one more free lecture on phrenology, health, human nature and self-improvement. At the close the handsomest young lady and gentleman will each receive a present. All desiring phrenological examinations can interview him at the ante-room of the Opera House before he departs.

Joke on Phil Armour.

Jealous lardy-dahs tells the story that when Phil Armour saw the hippopotami in the Sells Brothers' Shows he gazed upon their mammoth forms in rapture, mistaking them for a giant-breed of hogs, remarking solo voce, "Down comes the price of pork!"

FIRE.

The Free Lance Office Blazing.

On Sunday night as the composers in the Free Lance office were running off the edition a lamp was upset and in a minute the office was ablaze. One of the composers going down stairs into the APPEAL office, which is in the same building, secured a hand grenade and dashing it against the wall smothered the flames. A fire alarm was sounded and the Warren Engine Company sent a stream into the room for a few seconds and the fire was controlled with not over $25 damage.

The alarm called out a good many people but as soon as they heard that it was one of the many newspaper offices in the city, they went back to bed remarking "Let her burn."

Fred Fowler, chief compositor on the Free Lance was quite badly burned about the face and arms.

City License Suit.

Yesterday suit of the City of Carson vs. C. N. Harris, an attorney, was tried in the Justice Court. The suit was for $33, being the amount the defendant was in arrears at $5 a quarter.

The Court decided that the Act of the Legislature gave the city the power to pass such ordinances as it saw proper for the purpose of raising funds for the maintenance of the city government; that attorneys under this ordinance were taxed $5 a quarter, and just as liable for the license as cobbler, vegetable dealers, saloon keepers and lodging houses. The Court decided for the city and the defendant gave notice of appeal.

A Grave Matter.

It is generally understood that the Grand Jury in its last session discussed the proposition of investigating the circumstance that an Ormsby County election had been published in a newspaper along with the name of the voter. The case fell through because it was barred by the Statutes of Limitation. This is a case of very grave import and every good citizen will regret that it was not thoroughly investigated. Either the person possessing the ticket, the County Clerk or some person officially connected with the election, clearly violated the law, which was framed to guarantee every voter perfect secrecy in voting.

A Decision for the Central Pacific.

The Supreme Court of California has affirmed the judgment of the lower Court, sustaining the demand of the defendant in the case of Pfister, Treasurer of Santa Clara county, against the Central Pacific Railroad Company for $50,000 damages on account of the Company refusing to carry as freight, or allow him to carry as baggage on the trains of the Company, the sum of $1,000 and odd dollars. The Court holds that the money was not baggage, and that the Railroad Company was not compelled to receive the money as freight, the function of a common carrier being delegated to express companies.

Right You Are.

The Tucson Citizen tells the following story, which has an excellent bit of logic attached to it:

While playing a game of base ball at the Prima District mining camp, Mr. B. E. Bogan caught the ball with the bridge of his nose, resulting in breaking the bones and cutting a blood vessel. Before reaching the city he nearly bled to death, but is all right now with the exception of having to carry his nose in a sling. Catching ball with one's olfactory organ is nearly as dangerous as putting one's nose into somebody else's business.

Patronize Them.

A new firm of white vegetable dealers, Messrs. Thorne & Emmons, whose advertisement appears in another column have opened a store next to Dies & Leonhart's butcher shop. They are selling first-class fruit and vegetables at low rates and propose to give the Chinese dealers a good hard fight. They give the best of satisfaction to all who deal with them and ought to be given substantial encouragement by the citizens of Carson.

—An old settler in Nevada says it is not safe to conclude that the cold weather of Winter is over until the locust tree begins to put forth its leaves. He says, "The locust tree has more weather sense than any other tree."

UNRELIABLE NEWS.

It is a very difficult matter for us to form an opinion as to how the irrigation business is going to go in the extra session, at Sacramento, Cal. When we read the Sacramento letters of the San Francisco Examiner, Post, Alta and of other irrigation papers of that Bay city, we conclude that the irrigationists have it all their own way, and that Mr. J. De Barth Shorb, the chief promoter of irrigation, is walking around Sacramento in the most satisfied and complacent way, he is perfectly happy and is looking at the smooth running of the irrigation machinery. When, however, we read the Sacramento letters to the Chronicle, Call and Bulletin, all of San Francisco, we are forced to believe that Mr. Shorb has a dejected and despairing look, that he has "hailed in his horns," and that he is having no enjoyment with his life, things are going wrong with Mr. Shorb's schemes, say the letters to those last named papers. The Sacramento letter-writers take the color of the journals on which they are employed. They give some facts, but so state them as to make them favor the side the paper is advocating. We wish we could find a newspaper that had a letter giving extra-session news just as the news really is! News ought not to be partisan, but it is. The telegraph is suspected of sometimes sending partisan news, which is not always truthful, clear across the continent.

A Threatened Democratic Bolt.

The San Francisco Call says: It is reported in this city that a number of the Democratic members of the Legislature have signified their intention of bolting and going out of this State into Nevada in the event that an attempt is made to elect a United States Senator in the place of George Hearst at the special session that has been convened by the Governor. They have a precedent for this in the bolting of Democrats in the Ohio Legislature, who on a similar occasion placed themselves out of the reach of a "call of the House" by going over into Kentucky.

The bolting members could easily be accommodated here in Carson. It might be a good idea to put up quarters for them in the city and allow them to give a free concert like the California Press Association.

Silver Views.

New York, July 24th.—A Sun's editorial says, Devotees of the gold standard exhibit the same perturbation over its approaching de-thronement that might be expected of pagan savages at the threatened destruction of their chief idol. The calamity is still far off and may not arrive for years, but it is impending nevertheless. The bare thought of it is terrible to them. Within forty years we have seen the annual yield of gold suddenly quadrupled and then gradually diminish by one half, and its exchangeable value or its purchasing power varied in a corresponding ratio. At present gold is getting every day scarcer and scarcer, consequently dearer and dearer. Its growing unfitness for a monetary standard is plain to every unprejudiced eye. Its usefulness as money is gone and it ought to be discarded.

Jones and the Nevada Senatorship.

WASHINGTON, July 24th.—Senator Jones, in conversation with the Record Union correspondent, said the Senatorial contest in Nevada is in a chaotic condition. Fair had not yet declared himself a candidate, but Jones thinks he will enter the race. Mackay favors Stewart, but there is much opposition to him on account of his comparatively recent residence in that State. Hobart has positively refused to be a candidate. Mr. Jones says he is taking no active part in the controversy. Three times the people of Nevada have elected him to the Senate, twice without the expenditure of a dollar on his part, and under the circumstances he does not feel like attempting to influence their decision as to whom his colleague shall be.

—Lost.—Between the Arlington Hotel and the Opera House, a ladies' gold pin, sapphire stone, bug setting. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Reason it Out.

Suppose you are about to enter London, or some great metropolis. You are a stranger going there to buy goods for yourself or family. You will probably be reasoning in this wise:

"I do not know where to buy. I am unacquainted with any store. But I shall try and find the largest establishment. For where the most people choose to buy, there the general styles and assortments will be the most satisfactory and prices the lowest. It must be so, or else such a concern would not attract the largest trade. Still there is this difficulty: I do not know the value of all I wish to buy. I may be charged more for some things than other people, who are better posted on prices. Therefore, I shall be careful to ask if this largest establishment has a secret way of 'marking prices,' permitting salesmen to charge me as much as they think I will pay, or whether its prices are put in plain figures, insuring me as much for my money as gets its most favored customers."

A parallel to the above is found in the fact that thousands of people, all over the Pacific Coast, are now looking to the large city merchants for their supplies, but do not know where, or how to send.

Will not the same course of reasoning hold good in both cases? If so, why not place your trade accordingly? DEAL WITH THE LARGEST ESTABLISHMENT.

The stock of our house includes nearly a hundred different lines of goods, and because its business methods have always afforded protection to inexperienced, or absent buyers, this, the eleventh year from the acorn, finds it a thriving oak of vast proportions, its trade reaching into every town and hamlet, from Montana to New Mexico.

What has thus grown to be a center of interest to so many thousands of buyers may be of DIRECT INTEREST to you.

If you send your name and address we will mail FREE a copy of our large Illustrated Catalogue. It gives full information about goods, styles and prices, and how to order. It is worth having as a book of reference, whether you choose to order goods of us or not.

Anything, to be worn anywhere, by any one, in any station in life, we keep. Goods not sent as ordered may be returned at our expense. Address.
